◆ Applications Invited for "Seminarians Interacting"

"Seminarians Interacting" is a program sponsored by the National Conference for Community and Justice (formerly the National Conference of Christians and Jews). The program involves approximately one hundred seminary students from diverse Christian, Jewish, and Muslim traditions. Five students from Princeton Seminary will be chosen to participate in a three-day visitation program at two seminaries in the Northeast and an additional four-day retreat of intense interfaith dialogue with seminarians of other religious traditions (February 21-24, 1999).

Please submit a brief statement of two or three paragraphs describing your background and interest in such an interreligious and interdenominational experience to Professor Dennis Olson via campus mail no later than Friday, September 25. Preference will be given to middlers and seniors.

A registration fee of $40 is required if you are selected for the program. Only serious applicants willing to dedicate their time to the project should apply.

Contact: Dennis Olson
Phone: 497-7769
Email: dennis.olson@ptsem.edu

◆ Class Field Education Advisor Meetings

All entering M.A.s, M.Div.s, and dual program students are requested to make an appointment with their field education advisor for their initial interview. Advisors are Joseph Duyol Choi, Harry Freebairn, Chester Polk, and Dana Wright.

(con't)

Appointment sheets will be outside the Field Education Office on the third floor of Templeton Hall beginning Monday, September 21. Your student profile sheet should be completed prior to your appointment.

◆ From the Theological Book Agency (TBA)

Hours:

Mondays	10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Tuesdays–Fridays	10:00 a.m.– 4:00 p.m.
Saturdays and Sundays	closed

Student Accounts:

Student accounts have been set up for your use at the TBA. Full-time students may charge up to $500 per semester on their student accounts. These charges will appear in the monthly statements from the Bursar's Office. Student accounts will be activated only upon registration and payment of all bills. The student accounts are not revolving accounts; whether or not they are paid up, the limit remains $500 per semester. The limit for part-time students is $250.

Returns Policy:

Books purchased at the TBA may be returned within two weeks of the date of purchase. They must be in new condition, and receipts must be presented at the time of the return. Credit card purchases will receive credit on the respective credit cards, and purchases on student accounts will be credited to those accounts. It is the policy of the TBA not to give cash refunds. If purchases were made with cash, store credit will be issued.

Phone: 497-7778

◆ Communications/Publications Office Seeks Student Help

The Communications/Publications Office is looking for a qualified student to assist in designing posters, flyers, programs, and brochures. If you have knowledge of Quark and/or PhotoShop, consider applying.

The Communications/Publications Office also seeks a writer/editor who has an eye for detail and an appreciation of deadlines to assist in producing inSpire, the alumni/ae magazine, as well as other writing assignments.

Both jobs require ten to fifteen hours per week.

If you are interested, bring a resumé and samples to 301 Templeton Hall by Wednesday, September 23. These positions need to be filled immediately.

◆ Fire Alarm Procedure for Dormitories and Apartments

All of the Seminary's multiple dwellings have automatic fire alarm systems that register at the Seminary Security Base Station in the Corporation Yard when activated by smoke detectors or pull stations. Security is then dispatched to determine the cause of the alarm and to determine if any further action is needed.

When you hear the fire alarm, vacate the building immediately. No other action is needed.

◆ Communications/Publications Office Seeks Student Help

The Communications/Publications Office is looking for a qualified student to assist in designing posters, flyers, programs, and brochures. If you have knowledge of Quark and/or PhotoShop, consider applying.

The Communications/Publications Office also seeks a writer/editor who has an eye for detail and an appreciation of deadlines to assist in producing inSpire, the alumni/ae magazine, as well as other writing assignments.

Both jobs require ten to fifteen hours per week.

If you are interested, bring a resumé and samples to 301 Templeton Hall by Wednesday, September 23. These positions need to be filled immediately.

◆ Seminary Saturday

Attention field education students! You should have received notice recently about Seminary Saturday. This event presents a perfect opportunity to introduce your church's youth groups to the Seminary and to encourage a possible vocation among them by showing them firsthand how seminarians live and work.

Seminary Saturday will be held on October 24 from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. with separate programs for teens and adults. Both groups will have the opportunity to tour the campus and listen to the Princeton Seminary Touring Choir, directed by Martin Tel, the C. F. Seabrook Director of Music.

Also included in the day's events are a box lunch and tickets to the Princeton-Harvard football game. The cost is $5 for adults and $3 for students under 18. Reservations are required by October 17.

Students are requested not to park on the quad or in the staff parking lot after 8:00 a.m. on that date so that sufficient parking will be available for the expected 500 or so guests.

◆ Take a Professor to Lunch

The Student Affairs Office invites masters-level students to enjoy lunch with a professor. The "Take a Professor to Lunch" program provides the lunch tickets for the professors—students provide their own lunches and insightful questions.

The program is limited to those enrolled in the M.Div., M.A., Dual Degree, and Th.M. degree programs and is intended for the participation of students and current faculty only (no administrators or TAs). A student may invite more than one professor to lunch in a given semester but may not take the same professor to lunch more than once in a given semester. Luncheon appointments must be scheduled with the professor before obtaining the tickets. Stop by the Student Affairs Office at 210 Templeton for more information.

◆ Take a Professor to Lunch

The Student Affairs Office invites masters-level students to enjoy lunch with a professor. The "Take a Professor to Lunch" program provides the lunch tickets for the professors—students provide their own lunches and insightful questions.

The program is limited to those enrolled in the M.Div., M.A., Dual Degree, and Th.M. degree programs and is intended for the participation of students and current faculty only (no administrators or TAs). A student may invite more than one professor to lunch in a given semester but may not take the same professor to lunch more than once in a given semester. Luncheon appointments must be scheduled with the professor before obtaining the tickets. Stop by the Student Affairs Office at 210 Templeton for more information.

◆ The Artist's Way

PTS pastoral psychotherapist Nancy Schongalla-Bowman will facilitate a group on Julia Cameron's book The Artist's Way, A Spiritual Path to Higher Creativity. The book is a helpful guide for tapping into one's God-given creativity and becoming free of the self-limiting beliefs and behaviors that block confidence and productivity. Cameron's approach is thought provoking and fun. The seminar will benefit not only individuals with a specific artistic interest, but also anyone who wants to approach life with more imagination and inspiration. Participants will be expected to journal regularly and to read the chapter for the session.

Sessions will be held Wednesdays from 1:15 to 2:30 p.m. on October 21, November 4, November 18, December 2, December 9, and December 16. The seminar will resume in the spring with six more sessions. The cost is $5 per session or $30 for the fall semester, plus the book, which will be available from the chapel at a reduced rate of approximately $12. Financial support is available if finances would preclude participation. Please call the Chapel Office to register.

Discussion and Forum on Civility and Aggression

*McCormick Hall, Room 101
Princeton University*

7:30 p.m.

As a direct outgrowth of the spring term racial-ethnic task force, the Seminary is cosponsoring an interinstitutional community event with both Princeton University and Princeton Township. This event is designed to engage all segments of our campuses and town in an open forum.

From an informed theological perspective, developing civil discourse among the multi-cultural, racial, ethnic, and denominational groups that constitute our local and global communities is an important goal. Program speakers will explore facets of aggression and civility from various different racial and ethnic perspectives that exist in diverse academic disciplines and organizations.

Scheduled speakers from the Seminary are Jeffrey O'Grady, dean of student affairs, and Michael Livingston, campus pastor and director of the chapel. Scheduled speakers from the University are Janina Montero, dean of student life, and Anu Rao, ombuds officer.

The Seminary community is also invited to a program on the University campus on "Hierarchy and Subordination" on Friday, October 16, at 3:00 p.m., in McCosh 28.

◆ Wednesday, October 21
The Artist's Way
 PTS pastoral therapist Nancy Schongalla-Bowman will facilitate a group on Julia Cameron's book The Artist's Way, A Spiritual Path to Higher Creativity. The book is a helpful guide for tapping into one's God-given creativity and becoming free of the self-limiting beliefs and behaviors that block confidence and productivity. Cameron's approach is thought provoking and fun. The seminar will benefit not only individuals with a specific artistic interest, but also anyone who wants to approach life with more imagination and inspiration. Participants will be expected to journal regularly and to read the chapter for the session.

Sessions will be held Wednesdays from 1:15 to 2:30 p.m. on October 21, November 4, November 18, December 2, December 9, and December 16. The seminar will resume in the spring with six more sessions. The cost is $5 per session or $30 for the fall semester, plus the book, which will be available from the chapel at a reduced rate of approximately $12. Financial support is available if finances would preclude participation. Please call the Chapel Office to register.

Off-Campus ❖ Events

◆ Wednesday, October 21
 Discussion and Forum on Civility and Aggression

*McCormick Hall, Room 101
 Princeton University* 7:30 p.m.

As a direct outgrowth of the spring term racial-ethnic task force, the Seminary is cosponsoring an interinstitutional community event with both Princeton University and Princeton Township. This event is designed to engage all segments of our campuses and town in an open forum.

From an informed theological perspective, developing civil discourse among the multi-cultural, racial, ethnic, and denominational groups that constitute our local and global communities is an important goal. Program speakers will explore facets of aggression and civility from various different racial and ethnic perspectives that exist in diverse academic disciplines and organizations.

Scheduled speakers from the Seminary are Jeffrey O'Grady, dean of student affairs; Michael Livingston, campus pastor and director of the chapel; and Mercedes Delgado, Ph.D. candidate. Scheduled speakers from the University are Janina Montero, dean of student life, and Anu Rao, ombuds officer.

The Seminary community is also invited to a program on the University campus on "Hierarchy and Subordination" on Friday, October 16, at 3:00 p.m., in McCosh 28.

Main Lounge 1:30 p.m.

All Presbyterian Church (USA) students are invited to attend this once-a-year event. An overview of the candidacy process, this seminar will give you skills to survive (and thrive in) the process, political "do's" and "don'ts," and other information vital to a successful navigation of the ordination journey. A portion of the program will be devoted to answering questions.

Students who are considering ordination in the Presbyterian Church (USA), or who have already begun the process, are strongly encouraged to attend; spouses and other interested parties are welcome as well.

Main Lounge 12:45 p.m.
Jorge Valdés, a Ph.D. candidate at Loyola University in Chicago, will speak on "Reclaiming the Lost Tradition: Jiménez and the Complutensian Polyglot."

The Complutensian Polyglot was a great multilingual edition of the Bible prepared by the best scholars available under the leadership of Cardinal Jiménez. It included Hebrew, Greek, and Latin versions, which appeared in parallel columns. The entire work was contained in six volumes. The work was completed in 1517, although it was not officially published until 1520. Just prior to the completion of the six-volume work of Jiménez, Erasmus published the first two editions of his Greek New Testament. Jorge Valdés argues that both the third and subsequent editions of Erasmus's Greek New Testament show the influence of the Complutensian Polyglot.

This event is sponsored by AL/HAS, the History and Biblical Studies Departments, the Women's Center, and Koinonia.

◆ Stress Support Group to Begin

Among the many mechanisms individuals employ for coping with stress are some self-defeating behaviors that include eating disorders and inflicting physical harm to self. Once part of an individual's repertoire, these become hard habits to break and often consume large amounts of time, psychic energy, and self-esteem.

If you are a student or spouse who would like to meet with others who struggle with these urges, please drop a note to Nancy Schongalla-Bowman at the Chapel Office and include your SBN and/or phone number. Mark the envelope "personal." All names will be kept confidential, and confidentiality would be the first norm of any meeting or groups that might form.

Upcoming ❖ Events

- ◆ Monday, December 7
Service for Healing and Wholeness
Miller Chapel 7:00 p.m.
 A Service for Healing and Wholeness will be held. The elements of the worship service are anointing for healing, special music, and communion, and there will be opportunities for individual prayer with prayer partners. The service is focused on healing the brokenness caused by addictions, especially painful during the holiday season. This event is sponsored by the Substance Abuse Prevention Committee.

General ❖ Notices

- ◆ Graduate Fellowship for Parish Pulpit Ministry
 The Seminary offers a Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Pulpit Ministry to a member of the M.Div. senior class who will graduate next May. The award enables a graduate committed to parish pulpit ministry to study overseas. Although the amount to be awarded is not yet known, in recent years it has ranged from $12,000 to $18,000. Information sheets and applications for the award may be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs. All applications must be returned by 4:30 p.m. on Friday, January 29, 1998.

- ◆ Vespers Services
 Each Advent, PTS students have the opportunity to worship and celebrate together at evening Vespers services. Vespers is a half-hour candle-light service that includes hymns, prayer, Scripture, and meditation. The services provide an opportunity to reflect on and to prepare for the celebration of Christmas. Come join the celebration.

Services will be held nightly Sunday through Thursday, beginning Sunday, November 29, through Thursday, December 17.
